

MARK SCHEME for the October/November 2013 series

0522 FIRST LANGUAGE ENGLISH

0522/03

Paper 3 (Directed Writing and Composition), maximum raw mark 50

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the October/November 2013 series for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level components and some Ordinary Level components.

Section 1: Directed Writing

Question 1

This question tests Writing Objectives W1–W5 (15 marks):

- articulate experience and express what is thought, felt and imagined
- order and present facts, ideas and opinions
- understand and use a range of appropriate vocabulary
- use language and register appropriate to audience and context
- make accurate and effective use of paragraphs, grammatical structures, sentences, punctuation and spelling.

AND aspects of Reading Objectives R1–R3 (10 marks):

- understand and collate explicit meanings
- understand, explain and collate implicit meanings and attitudes
- select, analyse and evaluate what is relevant to specific purposes.

Read carefully the article on 'Why I'm teaching happiness'. Write a letter to the Headteacher expressing your views on teaching about happiness. You may agree or disagree with the Headteacher's arguments. In your letter you should: explore and evaluate the Headteacher's views; use your own ideas to support your comments on the Headteacher's views.

Base your letter on what you have read in the article but be careful to use your own words.

Begin your letter: 'Dear Headteacher ...'.

Write between 1½ and 2 sides, allowing for the size of your handwriting. Up to 10 marks are available for the content of your answer, and up to 15 marks for the quality of your writing.

Candidates might use the following ideas:

Responses may include a wide range of points of which the following are examples:

A1 – The main points of the Headteacher:

- A school's education is normally all about exams when it should be balanced and help produce well adjusted and happy individuals
- High achievers can be too driven; some are very unhappy and their lives flash by in study/books
- Forming healthy relationships is as important as top exam results
- School is the place to teach happiness/psychology as children form good habits
- These lessons help by setting realistic goals/dealing with negative emotions and self acceptance
- Excellent preparation for university and for producing better members of society

A2 – Own arguments to support Headteacher's views:

- Examples of the stress of exams: making them feel ill, lead unbalanced lives (all study no play), not eating healthily, feeling overwhelmed
- Knowledge of factual subjects does not help one to know or understand oneself or feel entirely self-confident
- Happiness lessons would help with the pressure of adolescence/relationships/exams
- Happiness lessons would help them deal with pressure from parents/expectations of others
- With these lessons university would seem less daunting/empower them in a career

A3 – Own arguments to show disagreement:

- School should be for academic subjects/study and learning
- The curriculum is overloaded; exams results will be compromised
- Results are paramount; school is about competition and doing the best
- Today's teenagers are more mature/they know how to communicate/already have balanced lives
- We can find out about university and other aspects of life after school via the Internet/gap years/part-time jobs/experience outside school
- We are not 'tortured' or 'unhappy' – we know what we want, we understand that there's a price to pay, i.e. studying hard, and we don't want our time wasted by some adult's newly discovered ideology

Accept other relevant ideas derived from the passage and relevant to the question.

The question is marked out of 10 for Reading and 15 for Writing.

Use the following table to give a mark out of 10 for Reading.

|---------------|---------------|---|
| Band 1 | 9 – 10 | Gives a thorough, perceptive, convincing evaluation. Reads effectively between the lines. Shows understanding by developing much of the reading material and assimilating it into a response to the task. |
| Band 2 | 7 – 8  | Some evidence of evaluation , engaging with a few of the main points with success. Uses reading material to support the argument. Occasionally effective development of ideas in the material.            |
| Band 3 | 5 – 6  | Reproduces a number of points to make a satisfactory response. The response covers the material adequately, but may miss opportunities to develop it relevantly or at length.                                    |
| Band 4 | 3 – 4  | Selects points from the passage rather literally and/or uses the material thinly . Does not combine points into a connected response.  |
| Band 5 | 1 – 2  | Parts of the response are relevant, though the material may be repeated or used inappropriately.  |
| Band 6 | 0      | Response does not relate to question and/or too much unselective copying directly from the material to gain a mark in Band 5.   |

Use the following table to give a mark out of 15 for Writing.

|-------------------------------|--|
| Band 113–15 | Consistent sense of audience; authoritative and appropriate style. Fluent, varied sentences; wide range of vocabulary. Strong sense of structure, paragraphing and sequence. Virtually no error. |
| Band 210–12 | Sense of audience mostly secure; there is evidence of style and fluency; sentences and vocabulary are effective. Secure overall structure; mostly well-sequenced. Writing is mainly accurate.    |
| Band 38–9   | Occasional sense of audience; mostly written in correctly structured sentences; vocabulary may be plain but adequate for the task; mostly quite well structured. Errors minor.                   |
| Band 45–7   | Inconsistent style; simple or faultily constructed sentences; vocabulary simple; basic structure. Frequent errors, including sentence separation.  |
| Band 53–4   | Inappropriate expression; the response is not always well sequenced. Serious errors in sentence structure/vocabulary/grammar/punctuation.  |
| Band 61–2   | Expression unclear; flawed sentence construction and order. Persistent serious errors interfere with the conveying of meaning.   |
| Band 70     | Problems of expression and accuracy are too serious to gain a mark in Band 6.  |
